

What brought you to Ansley Park? (37 comments)

Extremely high - access to the arts, cultural, and historic institutions

Proximity to restaurants

proximity to Woodruff Arts Center, Piedmont Park, & MARTA

We moved here because it's a special neighborhood, unique from all others in Atlanta, filled with interesting people, and close to Piedmont Park and so many urban amenities.

Convenient location to Midtown, Ansley Golf Club & dining/activities

Proximity to the city

political attitudes

For those of us who have lived here for 50 years, it is challenging to answer some of these questions. We moved here long before this was a mega-million dollar neighborhood.

Proximity to golf course

Geographic location/convenience

Ansley Patrol

City Living in a neighborhood

Keeping people on safe usable sidewalks- and out of the street/ it irritates me beyond words to see people in the road when the sidewalk is available but they want to get short with someone driving and they are in the way and the wrong- keep the streets safe for everyone and stay on the sidewalk!!

No Commute

The total character of the neighborhood (streets, trees, space, houses combined.)

Walking proximity to Midtown

Good Public Schools, Close to future Beltline

Flowing boulevards- Olmsted character of parks

Location close to goods, services and activities

Great public school (Morningside Elementary) convenience to central Atlanta

The history and the fact that it is one of the few enclaves of older homes in the entire city are the most important characteristics in our view.

proximity to our club, Piedmont Park and ABG

Long term residents. Access to midtown and interstates. Piedmont Park.

Ability to walk to work

"In-town" location.

centrally located to highways, work, recreation

Proximity to Midtown

Part of Midtown and commercial space close by Love Ansley's eclectic mix of modern/new and older homes.

Central location in Atlanta, Nearby Piedmont Park, Near to Atlanta restaurants

Great place to walk dogs

Location, proximity to arts, culture, shopping, churches

Ansley Park is the most beautiful place I have ever lived.

Location near Piedmont Park/ Botanical Gardens/Symphony/ Arts Center

walkability to midtown and piedmont park
